

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	xv
About the author	xxi
Preface	xxiv
Acknowledgments	xxxii

PART 1 OVERVIEW	1
1 The Origins of Genocide	3
Genocide in prehistory, antiquity, and early modernity	3
The Vendée uprising	6
Zulu genocide	7
Naming genocide: Raphael Lemkin	8
Defining genocide: The UN Convention	13
Bounding genocide: Comparative genocide studies	15
Discussion	20
What is destroyed in genocide?	29
Multiple and overlapping identities	34
Dynamism and contingency	36
The question of genocidal intent	37
Contested cases of genocide	39
Atlantic slavery – and after	39
Area bombing and nuclear warfare	43
UN sanctions against Iraq	44
9/11: Terrorism as genocide?	45
Structural and institutional violence	47
Is genocide ever justified?	48
Further study	51
Notes	53
2 State and Empire; War and Revolution	64
The state, imperialism, and genocide	66
Imperial famines	68
The Congo “rubber terror”	70

The Japanese in East and Southeast Asia	72
The US in Indochina	74
The Soviets in Afghanistan	77
Imperial ascent and dissolution	80
Genocide and war	81
The First World War and the dawn of industrial death	85
The Second World War and the “barbarization of warfare”	88
Genocide and social revolution	89
The nuclear revolution and “omnicide”	91
Further study	93
Notes	94
PART 2 CASES	103
3 Genocides of Indigenous Peoples	105
Introduction	105
Colonialism and the discourse of extinction	106
The conquest of the Americas	108
Spanish America	108
The United States and Canada	111
Other genocidal strategies	117
Australia’s Aborigines and the Namibian Hereros	119
Genocide in Australia	119
The Herero genocide	122
Denying genocide, celebrating genocide	124
Complexities and caveats	125
Indigenous revival	128
Further study	131
Notes	132
The genocide of Guatemala’s Mayans	139
4 The Ottoman Destruction of Christian Minorities	149
Introduction	149
Origins of the genocide	151
War, deportation, and massacre	153
The Armenian genocide	155
The Assyrian genocide	161
The Pontian Greek genocide	163
Aftermath: Attempts at justice	166
The denial	168
Further study	172
Notes	173
Iraq: Liberation and genocide	179

5 Stalin and Mao	188
The Soviet Union and Stalinism	189
1917: The Bolsheviks seize power	189
Collectivization and famine	191
The Gulag	195
The Great Purge of 1937–38	197
The war years	199
The destruction of national minorities	202
China and Maoism	204
Stalin, Mao, and genocide	216
Further study	218
Notes	220
Chechnya	226
6 The Jewish Holocaust	233
Introduction	233
Origins	234
“Ordinary Germans” and the Nazis	238
The turn to mass murder	239
Debating the Holocaust	247
Intentionalists vs. functionalists	247
Jewish resistance	248
The Allies and the churches: Could the Jews have been saved?	249
Willing executioners?	251
Israel, the Palestinians, and the Holocaust	252
Is the Jewish Holocaust “uniquely unique”?	254
Further study	255
Notes	257
The Nazis’ other victims	263
7 Cambodia and the Khmer Rouge	283
Origins of the Khmer Rouge	283
War and revolution, 1970–75	286
A genocidal ideology	288
A policy of “urbicide,” 1975	291
“Base People” vs. “New People”	292
Cambodia’s Holocaust, 1975–79	293
Genocide against Buddhists and ethnic minorities	299
Aftermath: Politics and the quest for justice	302
Further study	305
Notes	306
East Timor	310

8	Bosnia and Kosovo	317
	Origins and onset	317
	Gendercide and genocide in Bosnia	322
	The international dimension	324
	Kosovo, 1998–99	329
	Aftermaths	331
	Further study	336
	Notes	337
	Genocide in Bangladesh, 1971	340
9	Apocalypse in Rwanda	346
	Introduction: Horror and shame	346
	Background to genocide	348
	Genocidal frenzy	352
	Aftermaths	360
	Further study	362
	Notes	363
	Congo and Darfur	368
PART 3	SOCIAL SCIENCE PERSPECTIVES	381
10	Psychological Perspectives	383
	Narcissism, greed, fear, humiliation	384
	Narcissism	384
	Greed	387
	Fear	389
	Humiliation	394
	The psychology of perpetrators	396
	The Stanford prison experiments	400
	The psychology of rescuers	402
	Further study	412
	Notes	414
11	The Sociology and Anthropology of Genocide	423
	Introduction	423
	Sociological perspectives	424
	The sociology of modernity	424
	Ethnicity and ethnic conflict	427
	Ethnic conflict and violence “specialists”	429
	“Middleman minorities”	430
	Anthropological perspectives	432
	Further study	439
	Notes	441

12 Political Science and International Relations	446
Empirical investigations	446
The changing face of war	449
Democracy, war, and genocide/democide	453
Norms and prohibition regimes	455
Further study	459
Notes	460
13 Gendering Genocide	464
Gendercide vs. root-and-branch genocide	465
Women as targets	469
Gendercidal institutions	472
Genocide and violence against homosexuals	474
Genocidal men, genocidal women	476
A note on gendered propaganda	487
Further study	490
Notes	491
PART 4 THE FUTURE OF GENOCIDE	499
14 Memory, Forgetting, and Denial	501
Contested memories: Four cases	503
I. Germany	503
II. Japan	505
III. Russia	508
IV. Argentina	511
The politics of forgetting	514
Genocide denial: Motives and strategies	517
Denial and free speech	520
Further study	524
Notes	526
15 Justice, Truth, and Redress	532
Leipzig, Constantinople, Nuremberg, Tokyo	533
The international criminal tribunals: Yugoslavia and Rwanda	536
Jurisdictional issues	537
The concept of a victim group	537
Gender and genocide	538
National trials	541
The “mixed tribunals”: Cambodia and Sierra Leone	542
Another kind of justice: Rwanda’s gacaca experiment	543
The Pinochet case	546
The International Criminal Court (ICC)	548

International citizens' tribunals	550
Truth and reconciliation	552
The challenge of redress	555
Further study	558
Notes	559
16 Strategies of Intervention and Prevention	567
Warning signs	569
Humanitarian intervention	572
Sanctions	573
The United Nations	573
When is military intervention justified?	575
A standing "peace army"?	581
Ideologies and individuals	594
The role of the honest witness	594
Ideologies, religious and secular	596
Personal responsibility	599
Conclusion	601
Further study	601
Notes	602
Index	610

ILLUSTRATIONS

FIGURES

1.1	Raphael Lemkin, founder of genocide studies	10
1.2	Samantha Power speaking at Columbia University, 2008	11
1.3	Two members of the Madan community in southern Iraq	27
1.4	UN peacekeepers walk past a destroyed mosque in Bosnia-Herzegovina	31
1.5	Nazi antisemitic/anti-communist poster	35
1.6	Peter, a whipped slave in Baton Rouge, Louisiana	40
1.7	We Charge Genocide , cover of the 1970 edition	41
1.8	The heart of the German city of Dresden, destroyed by US and British bombing	43
1.9	A destroyed temple after the atomic bombing in Nagasaki, Japan	43
1.10	Sunlight streams through the ruins of the World Trade Center, September 2001	46
2.1	“The Famine in India” (1877 engraving)	69
2.2	The wealth of the Congo, siphoned off by Belgian King Leopold	71
2.3	Japanese forces use captured Chinese prisoners for bayonet practice	73
2.4	Iris Chang, author of The Rape of Nanking	73
2.5	Children and women rounded up for massacre in My Lai, Vietnam	75
2.6	The irrigation ditch in My Lai where 170 Vietnamese villagers were killed	76
2.7	Soviet troops round up young Afghan men in a counterinsurgency “sweep operation”	78
2.8	A frieze from the ninth-century ruins of the Angkor civilization in Cambodia	82
2.9	Visitors enter a museum exhibition in Kazan, capital of the Republic of Tatarstan, Russian Federation	82
2.10	US recruiting poster from World War One	83
2.11	Alfred George Jones (1885–1949), the author’s grandfather	86
2.12	Soldiers go “over the top” at the Battle of the Somme	86
2.13	Adolf Hitler with soldiers of Germany’s 16th Bavarian Unit	87
2.14	The mushroom cloud of the first atomic bomb, Hiroshima, Japan	92
2.15	A victim of the atomic blast at Hiroshima	92
3.1	Spanish slavery and atrocities in the Caribbean	109
3.2	Diego Rivera’s mural “La Gran Tenochtitlán” (1945)	109
3.3	The Cerro Rico mountain overlooking Potosí, Bolivia	110
3.4	Cree Canadian singer Buffy Sainte-Marie in concert	112
3.5	US soldiers load Indian corpses from Wounded Knee massacre, 1890	117
3.6	Truganini, “the last Tasmanian”	120

3.7	Children at a school in Perth, Australia, join forces to spell out “Sorry”	121
3.8	Famished Hereros after emerging from the Omahake desert, c. 1907	123
3.9	The Shark Island concentration camp	123
3.10	Aztec victims of a smallpox epidemic	126
3.11	Indigenous protest against health conditions in Belém, Brazil	129
3a.1	Rigoberta Menchú, Guatemalan Indian and Nobel Peace Prize winner	141
4.1	Fundraising poster for the American Committee for Relief in the Near East	151
4.2	Armenian men being led away for execution, Harput, May 1915	156
4.3	Armenian woman and children after deportation	157
4.4	Sano Halo and her daughter Thea	163
4.5	Pontian Greeks rounded up for deportation in railway cars	165
4.6	Mustafa Kemal (Ataturk)	167
4.7	1915: The missing year of Ottoman history	169
5.1	Soviet poster attacking “Enemies of the Five Year Plan,” 1929	193
5.2	Pedestrians pass by the corpses of famine victims in Kharkov, Ukraine, 1932–33	194
5.3	Slave laborers on the White Sea Canal (Belomorsko–Baltiyskiy Kanal), 1932	195
5.4	A Russian woman with a portrait of Joseph Stalin at a May Day demonstration, Moscow, 2007	204
5.5	The 14th Dalai Lama, Tenzin Gyatso, in Delhi in 2009	210
5.6	Joseph Stalin and Mao Zedong depicted in a Soviet propaganda poster	212
5.7	Purge victims paraded in public during the Cultural Revolution, China	214
5a.1	Russian soldiers by a mass grave in Chechnya	229
6.1	A medieval manuscript depicting a mass burning of Jews in 1349	234
6.2	Front page of the Nazi propaganda newspaper Der Stürmer , depicting the ritual murder (Ritualmord) of an Aryan woman by a Jewish man	235
6.3	Germans pass by broken windows of a Jewish shop destroyed in the Kristallnacht , November 1938	237
6.4	Jewish children, women, and men gathered for execution in 1941–42	240
6.5	The ruins of the Crematorium III death factory at Auschwitz II-Birkenau	243
6.6	Execution by pistol-fire at a death pit outside Vinnytsia, Ukraine, 1941–42	244
6.7	A German soldier takes aim at civilian victims near Novgorod, Russia, 1942	244
6.8	Jewish civilians are rounded up after the Warsaw Ghetto uprising of 1943	244
6.9	The bodies of gassing victims being burned in an open pit near Crematorium V, Auschwitz II-Birkenau, May 1944	244
6.10	Christopher Browning	252
6.11	Daniel Jonah Goldhagen	252
6a.1	Smoke billowing from the chimney of the Schloss Hartheim killing complex in Germany, 1940–41	269
6a.2	Soviet prisoners-of-war await their fate in Nazi captivity, 1941	272
6a.3	Mass grave of Soviet prisoners, winter 1941–42	273
6a.4	Roma interned in the Nazis’ Belzec death camp in Poland	274
7.1	A cell in the Tuol Sleng S-21 detention and torture center in Phnom Penh, Cambodia	298
7.2	Victims of the “killing fields” which have become synonymous with the Cambodian genocide	298
7.3	Dith Pran, who inspired the 1985 film The Killing Fields , with Haing S. Ngor, who played him in the film	300

7.4	Al Rockoff, Killing Fields photojournalist	301
7.5	Female victim of “S-21,” the Tuol Sleng torture and execution center in Phnom Penh	303
7.6	Male victim of “S-21,” today a Museum of Genocide	303
7.7	Kaing Guek Eav, alias “Duch,” the first senior Khmer Rouge figure to be tried by the Cambodian “mixed tribunal”	304
8.1	Visual rendering of the siege of Sarajevo, prepared by FAMA International	320
8.2	Siege life in Sarajevo	321
8.3	Coffins prepared for reinterment, Potocari, Bosnia and Herzegovina, July 2007	325
8.4	Bosnian Muslim women mourners at the Srebrenica reinterment ceremony, 2007	326
8.5	Slobodan Milosevic, Alija Izetbegovic, and Franjo Tudjman sign the Dayton Accords, Paris, December 1995	328
8.6	A half-restored, half-bullet-pocked façade in Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina	332
8.7	Radovan Karadzic, former prime minister of the Bosnian Serb republic, appearing before the ICTY in November 2009	333
8a.1	Bengali victims of genocide by Pakistani forces in Dhaka, 1971	342
9.1	Rwandan genocide victims pulled from Lake Victoria by Ugandan fishermen	354
9.2	Interior of church at Nyamata where Tutsis were massacred, now a genocide memorial site	355
9.3	Alison Des Forges, human-rights investigator and genocide scholar	361
9a.1	A young Darfuri man in a refugee camp in Chad, 2005	373
9a.2	A Darfuri woman refugee	373
10.1	Hubert Lanzinger’s portrait of Adolf Hitler, Der Bannerträger (The Standard Bearer)	384
10.2	Wall painting of Kim Il-sung, absolute ruler of North Korea from 1948 to 1994	384
10.3	“The World Needs More Canada” – sign in a Toronto bookstore	386
10.4	A baroque façade in Prague, Czech Republic, reflects the human fear of death	390
10.5	Diagram of the Milgram experiments	398
10.6	Dr. Philip Zimbardo, creator of the Stanford University prison experiments	401
10.7	Dominican friar Bartolomé de las Casas	409
10.8	Detail of Haitian banknote commemorating rebel slave leader Toussaint Louverture	409
10.9	Chiune Sugihara, Japanese consul in Vilnius, Lithuania	409
10.10	German businessman John Rabe with other organizers of the “International Safety Zone” in Nanjing	409
10.11	Pastor André and Magda Trocmé of Le Chambon sur Lignon, France	409
10.12	Miep Gies of Amsterdam, Holland, who sheltered Anne Frank and her family	409
10.13	Sophie Scholl, martyred member of the anti-Nazi White Rose movement	410
10.14	Oskar Schindler, inspiration for Schindler’s List , with Leopold Pfefferberg, whom he saved from the Nazis	410
10.15	Raoul Wallenberg, Swedish diplomat and rescuer in Budapest, Hungary	410
10.16	Hugh Thompson, Jr., who saved Vietnamese civilians at My Lai	410
10.17	Paul Rusesabagina, inspiration for Hotel Rwanda , who saved refugees in Kigali in 1994	410
11.1	Canister of Zyklon B gas	425
11.2	Homeless man in New York City	437
11.3	Isabel Reveco, Chilean forensic anthropologist, examines the skull of a Kurdish victim of the Anfal Campaign	438
12.1	Demobilized child soldiers in Congo	451
12.2	“Am I not a man and a brother?” Anti-slavery image from 1837	457

13.1	Frieze at the memorial museum in Lidice, Czech Republic, depicting the 1942 massacre of 190 village males by Nazi soldiers	466
13.2	Exhumed corpse of a victim of the Srebrenica massacre	466
13.3	A Congolese rape survivor and burn victim tells her story at a gathering in Gisenyi, Rwanda, September 2008	471
13.4	“Girl Child is Precious”: sign outside the maternity hospital in Pondicherry, India	473
13.5	Anti-gay protestors holding “God Hates Fag” and other signs, San Francisco, June 2008	475
13.6	Adolescent girls at an early Nazi parade	480
13.7	Lynching victims Thomas Shipp and Abram Smith in Marion, Indiana, 1930	482
13.8	Billie Holiday, American jazz singer	483
13.9	Detail of Figure 13.7	485
13.10	Poster for the Nazi propaganda exhibition Der Ewige Jude (The Eternal Jew), 1937	488
13.11	Cartoon from the Hutu Power propaganda paper Kangura , February 1994	489
13.12	Nazi propaganda poster of SS soldier	489
13.13	Nazi propaganda poster of mother and child	489
14.1	Visitors at a September 2009 ceremony for a new monument commemorating victims of the Babi Yar massacre, Ukraine	502
14.2	Children beside a memorial in Co Luy, Vietnam, to victims of the My Lai massacre	503
14.3	The Yasukuni shrine in Tokyo	507
14.4	“The Solovetsky Stone” in the Troitskaya gardens in St. Petersburg, Russia	509
14.5	The Naval Mechanics School (ESMA) in the Buenos Aires suburb of Palermo, Argentina	512
14.6	Father Patrick Desbois walks by a mass grave of Jewish victims of the “Holocaust by Bullets”	515
14.7	Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, president of Iran, speaking at Columbia University, New York, September 2007	521
14.8	Demonstrators protest against Ahmadinejad’s Columbia University address	521
14.9	Anti-semitic graffiti on a European street	521
15.1	Accused Nazi war criminals in the dock at Nuremberg, 1946	535
15.2	Vestine addresses the gacaca court, Rwanda	544
15.3	Spanish judge Baltasar Garzón	546
15.4	Luis Moreno Ocampo, chief prosecutor of the International Criminal Court (ICC)	550
15.5	ICC headquarters	550
16.1	“Never Again” sign at a “Save Darfur” rally, New York City, April 2006	568
16.2	Indian soldier of the United Nations Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (MONUC), February 2007	574
16.3	Mahathir bin Mohamed, prime minister of Malaysia from 1981 to 2003	583
16.4	Young women in traditional and Western dress outside the university in Kazan, Russia, 2008	584
16.5	Nelson Mandela addresses the crowd at his 90th birthday concert, London, UK, June 2008	586
16.6	Rwandan president Paul Kagame at the World Economic Forum, Cape Town, June 2009	588
16.7	Flags of the European Union (EU) outside European Commission headquarters in Brussels	591

16.8 Story by Gareth Jones on the Ukrainian famine in the London Evening Standard , 1933	595
---	-----

MAPS

World Map – Cases of mass violence referenced in this book	xxii
3.1 Known massacres of Native Americans: Map by Benjamin Madley	116
3a.1 Guatemala	139
4a.1 Iraq	179
5.1 Russian map of the Gulag labor-camp system, prepared by Memorial	196
5.2 Chinese Tibet (the Tibet Autonomous Region) and historic Tibet	207
5a.1 Chechnya	227
6.1 The Holocaust in Europe	242
7.1 Cambodia	285
7a.1 East Timor	311
8.1 Bosnia and Herzegovina today	319
8.2 Kosovo	330
8a.1 Bangladesh	341
9.1 Rwanda	349
9a.1 Congo	370
9a.2 Darfur and Sudan	372

BOXES

1.1 Genocide: Scholarly definitions (in chronological order)	16
1.2 A lexicon of genocides and related mass crimes	22
1.3 The other “-cides” of genocide	26
1.4 We Charge Genocide , 1951	41
3.1 Buffy Sainte-Marie, “My Country ’Tis of Thy People You’re Dying”	112
3a The genocide of Guatemala’s Maya	139
4.1 One woman’s story: Ester Ahronian	158
4.2 One woman’s story: Sano Halo	163
4a Iraq: Liberation and genocide	178
5.1 One man’s story: Janusz Bardach	200
5.2 Tibet: Repression and genocide	207
5.3 North Korea and “the cleanest race”	215
5a Chechnya	226
6.1 One woman’s story: Nechama Epstein	245
6a The Nazis’ other victims	263
7.1 One woman’s story: Molyda Szymusiak	294
7.2 Cambodia: Killing fields and The Killing Fields	300
7a East Timor	310
8.1 One man’s story: Nežad Avdic	326
8a Genocide in Bangladesh, 1971	340

9.1	One woman's story: Gloriose Mukakanimba	356
9a	Congo and Darfur	368
10.1	The story of Le Chambon	405
10.2	Hugh Thompson, Jr. and the My Lai Massacre	407
10.3	A heroes' gallery	409
13.1	"Strange Fruit" and the gendered politics of lynching	482
15.1	"Genocide" vs. "crimes against humanity"	538
16.1	The Genocide Prevention Task Force and The Will to Intervene (W2I) Project	576
16.2	Intervention in East Timor, 1999	579
16.3	Success stories?	582